

Columbus AFB, Mississippi,
Saturday recreational UAS use temporarily halted
- Effective Immediately -

- The Federal Aviation Administration has rescinded military installation commanders' authority to approve recreational Unmanned Aircraft System use in temporary flight restrictions (TFRs).
- All Department of Defense installations with UAS Special Security Instructions/TFRs are affected.
- Headquarters Air Force is working with the FAA and expects updated guidance next month.

For more information, call 434-2764.